

Politics to the Extreme: American Political Institutions in the 21st Century

October 15-16, 2012

California State University Channel Islands

All Sessions in Grand Salon

DAY ONE

	Author	Practitioner Discussant	Academic Discussant	Paper title
8:15-8:50	Welcome President Richard Rush, CSU Channel Islands Sean Kelly, CSU Channel Islands
9:00-9:50	Sean Theriault University of Texas	Brian Newman Pepperdine University  Jennifer Merolla Claremont Graduate Univ.		The Gingrich Senators, the Tea Party Senators, and Their Effect on the U.S. Senate
10:00-10:50	David Parker Montana State University	Michael Willis Alden Street Consulting	Christian Grose University of Southern California	The ‘Weaponization’ of Congressional Oversight
11:00-11:50	Lawrence Dodd &amp; Scot Schraufnagel University of Florida &amp; Northern Illinois University	Howard Marlowe Marlowe &amp; Company	Thomas Brunell University of Texas, Dallas	Party Polarization, Member Incivility, and Legislative Productivity: A Two-Dimensional Perspective on Conflict and Moderation in Congress
12:00-1.15	Conference Participant Lunch (by invitation)
1.30-2.30	Douglas Harris Loyola University of Maryland	Les Francis Washington Media Group	Lawrence Becker CSU Northridge	Let’s Play Hardball: Congressional Partisanship in the Television Era
2.30-3.00	Coffee Break
3:00-3:50	José Marichal California Lutheran University	Darry A. Sragow DNR Denton	Sarah Anderson University of California Santa Barbara	Profile Politics: Examining Polarization through Congressional Member Facebook Pages
4:00-4:50	Lara Brown Villanova University	Les Francis Washington Media Group	Chris den Hartog Cal Poly San Luis Obispo	Necessary and Damaging: Presidential Base Electoral Strategies and Partisan Polarization
4:50-6:00	Break
6:00-7:30	Keynote: Thomas Mann (Brookings Institution) and Norman Ornstein (American Enterprise Institute)  Moderator: Lou Cannon	It's Even Worse Than It Looks: How the American Constitutional System Collided With the New Politics of Extremism Book signing to follow.
8:00-10:00	Conference Participant Dinner (by invitation)

DAY TWO

9:00-9:50	Kevin McMahon Trinity University	Rick Hasen UC Irvine College of Law	Amanda Hollis-Brusky Pomona College	A Polarizing Supreme Court? Judicial Decisions in a Red/Blue America
10:00-10:50	Frank Mackaman Dirksen Congressional Center	Thomas Mann Brookings Institution	Norman Ornstein American Enterprise Institute	Growing Apart: ‘Civilista’ Attempts to Bridge the Partisan Rift
11:00-11:50	Seth Masket University of Denver	Timm Herdt Sacramento Bureau Chief, Ventura County Star	Joe Mathews New America Foundation	Can Polarization be Mitigated? California’s Experiment with the Top-Two Primary
12:00-1:15	Mickey Edwards Aspen Institute	The Parties Against the People: How to Turn Democrats and Republicans into Americans Book signing to follow.
1:15-2:30	Concluding Lunch (by invitation)			